

Activities and things to do in Udon Thani

Running & Walking

There are plenty of places to run or walk around Udon Thani, the most popular being Nong Prjak Park Map ref P6. There is also an Olympic style running ground at the Physical Education College Map ref C12. Nong Bua Lake Map ref R13 is also another area used for running and walking and is much quieter than the other parks. Most locals exercise a few hours before sunset when it's cooler and more comfortable.

Swimming

Most major hotels such as Napali (Map E11), Charoen (Map O13) and Charoensri Grand (Map O11) have decent size swimming pools but make sure you get there early to beat the crowds. Most of these pools have daily, monthly and annual rates.

For decent lap swimming head to the Physical Education College on the western ring-road (Map C12) they have a nice size 50m swimming pool. Costs to use this pool are 30bt per swim. There is also a 50m pool at the Satreeratchunatit Girls School on Sri Chomchun Road Map H11

Bar Berry club and restaurant has a good decent size pool, Thomas resort (Map Y18) is home to a smaller attractive pool and the Bamboo garden (Province Map G8) has a nice and quite pool amongst beautiful gardens. There is also a nice pool at Sonmangorn restaurant on the eastern ring road (Map V10).

Udon Thani Golf Society

Udon Thani has its own ex-pat golf society which was founded by 16 ex-pats during 2002 and now has over 70 members. Society days are held each Monday, Wednesday and Friday at the golf clubs listed above, visiting golfers are welcome to join in for a round of social golf, and Tee off time is around 8.30am. Society times and dates can be seen on the notice boards of the golf clubs mentioned above.

Gyms

One of the best gyms with modern facilities can be found at the Ban Chaing hotel (Map I11), there you will find a fully equipped gym with aerobics area exercise machines and weights, below is a spa with sauna. The Napali and Charoensri Grand hotels also have gyms. Private gyms can be found at the Englishman's Retreat (Map Ref G1) and BB Resort (Map Ref G1).

Tennis courts

Tennis courts are available at the Physical Education centre Map C12, Rajaphat Institute Map M14, Soi Phompakhai leading away from the airport Map E16 and and BB Villa (Map Ref G1).

Badminton Courts

Decent indoor and outdoor badminton courts can be found on Asawamit road Map J15

Ten Pin bowling

Udon has 1 modern 10-pin bowling alley. It is located on the top floor of the Central Plaza and is called Majorplex bowling (Map O11)

Pool & Snooker

Pool tables can be found at Lalita's Bar (Map P11), Mojo Bar (Map O12), Irish Clock (Map Ref P11) and many other bars around Udon Thani..

There is a large snooker hall next to the Udon Hotel (Map K9), next to the western bus terminal (Map C9), accross the road from Mojo's Bar (Map O12) and at Preecha Market (Map P12).

Darts

Harry's bar (Map C11) has a decent good quality darts board.

Race courses

There are 2 horse racing course in Udon Thani, the first is located on Soi Pompakai leading away from the airport on the left (Map E16) but is now used mainly as a training course, and the second course is located on the Udon-Sakon Nakon road, 2km's from Big C on the right (Map Y19 almost opposite Udon Thai House Resort)

Cinemas

There is one cinema complex in Udon Thani called Majorplex cinema which houses 9 modern screens, it is on the top floor of the Charoensri shopping centre. Majorplex recently added a 3D cinema, also please note English language films are limited

Shopping

Udon's main shopping area is Phosi road starting from the fountain round-about (Map M12) and then continues northwest. In this vicinity you'll find a wholesale clothes market, Gold shops, and various local handicraft shops.

There are three large night markets, two near the train station called Center point (Map Q12), Preecha Market (Map P12) and UD Bazaar (Map Q13)

For general shopping head to Central Plaza (Map O11) or UD Town (Map Q13). Udon has 3 Tesco Lotus stores, Big C, Makro, Tops, Carrefour and Tang Ngeesoon wholesale store. DIY enthusiasts should head to Global house which is a warehouse jammed packed with everything you could possibly need for building, it is across the road from Homemart which is almost the same but maybe has a better range of tiles and bathroom suites but less building accessories. Both places can be found almost facing each other on the north eastern ring-road Map T4. A new clothing hypermarket is currently under construction next door to Index Living Mall on the ring-road and is due to be completed this year.

Furniture shops are located all over Udon Thani but probably the place with the largest range of furniture can be found at Konzept opposite Tesco Lotus on the ring road Map J2. Another place with a good range of furniture is called Index which is on Phosi road 1km from Big C Map V17

National Parks

Phu Pra bat National Park is probably the most famous and interesting park in Udon Thani province, it contains an interesting collection of pre-historic caves and cave paintings and also some very nice walks. It is located 50km's north east of Udon (Province Map D6)

Phu phoilom is another popular park attracting visitors locally and nationally. It can be found 40km's south east of Udon (Province Map F9) A website is currently under construction called www.phufoilom.com

Waterfalls

There is a nice waterfall called Thanngam waterfall located in Phoilom Park (Province Map F9). It is most spectacular during the rain season June to Oct.

Watersports

Huai Luang Dam and resevoir (Province map E8) is a popular place for watersports of all kinds and is only a short drive from Udon Thani. A little further south is Ubonrat dam and lake (Province Map F12) which is also popular for water sports and has a pretty beach in the hot season.

Aerobics

Health and fitness is becoming increasingly popular in Thailand today. Aerobics is probably one of the most popular fitness activities and has really taken off in a big way. You can join the locals at Nong Sim Park and Nong Prajak park for daily aerobics exercise, they usually kick off between 5-6pm.
